

Writers!

Delaware Beach Life, coastal Delaware's only full-color feature magazine, is always looking for experienced, skilled writers, and undiscovered stars!

Launched in 2002, Delaware Beach Life is a regional magazine focused on the culture and lifestyle of coastal Delaware.

The magazine appeals to the beach area's ever-growing population of year-round residents, many of whom have moved here from surrounding metropolitan areas, where high-quality magazines are the norm. Delaware Beach Life also appeals to seasonal residents and regular vacationers, but is written for a reader who is familiar with coastal Delaware, not transient tourists.

Delaware Beach Life covers topics that interest people who love coastal Delaware. If you have story ideas that you think would fit the mix and tone of stories we have published in the past, e-mail them to Terry Plowman at info@delawarebeachlife.com. Please include information about your qualifications and experience as a writer.
